

Building knowledge

Principles of employment law in Asia-Pacific

Australia

China

Hong Kong

India

Japan

Singapore

This course is aimed at employers who need a broad overview of the employment landscape in Asia-Pacific. Unlike the EU, where directives are implemented in each country but follow common principles, Asia-Pacific jurisdictions take very different approaches to HR legal issues. Even Hong Kong and China, which are one country, operate HR legal regimes which are polar opposites.

Please note - this virtual course is being run over two mornings. Day one will cover Australia, Hong Kong and China and day two will cover Singapore, India and Japan.

30 June 2021 &
02 July 2021
08:30 – 11:30

£449 +VAT

Each course is limited to 20 delegates. Delegates will receive a detailed set of course materials.

Delegates will gain an insight into

- ✓ A brief coronavirus update
- ✓ Practical guidance on main issues of employment in Asia-Pacific
- ✓ Overview of key employment issues from hiring to termination
- ✓ Introduction to unions
- ✓ Insight into cultural differences

Cultural awareness issues in business will be addressed throughout this course.

Who should attend?

This course is relevant to international HR managers and directors with responsibility for employees in Asia-Pacific.

It will also be useful to managers and directors who anticipate entering the Asia-Pacific market and who need to be aware of their responsibilities to their people.

Our speakers

Jennifer Van Dale - Hong Kong
Partner, Eversheds Sutherland

Jack Cai - China
Partner, Eversheds Sutherland

Paul Ronfeldt - Australia
Partner, Thomson Geer

Kengo Ishikawa - Japan
Partner, The Tokyo-Marunouchi Law Offices

Sze Hui Goh - Singapore
Partner, Eversheds Sutherland

Anshul Prakash - India
Partner, Khaitan & Co